

R-7 middle schools recognize Students of the Month for January

Lee's Summit R-7 School District middle schools recently recognized their January Students of the Month. Students of the month are recognized based on outstanding citizenship, conduct, attitude and school involvement.

Students of the Month from Bernard Campbell Middle School are Grace Kirkman and Garrett Hooper. Grace is the daughter of Shelley and Scott Kirkman. At BCMS, Grace is involved in jazz band, art honor society and was named the outstanding science student for seventh grade. She has been listed on the principal's honor and received state and national recognition in the Duke Talent Identification Program. Away from school, Grace enjoys her church youth group and playing bass for the Kansas City Youth Jazz Band. Garrett is the son of Carolyn Hooper and the late Curtis Hooper. At BCMS, Garrett is involved in cross country and concert orchestra. Away from school, Garrett enjoys soccer. He has been listed on the principal's honor roll.

Students of the Month from Pleasant Lea Middle School are Sydney Merrell and Blake Ramsey. Sydney is the daughter of Kristen and Tom Merrell. At PLMS, Sydney is involved in National Junior Honor Society and Tiger Tracks production class. Away from school, Sydney enjoys photography, art, reading, writing and community service work. She has been listed on the principal's honor roll all quarters. Blake is the son of Susan and David Ramsey. At PLMS, Blake is involved in cross country and track. Away from school, Blake enjoys his summer swim team and church youth group. He has been listed on the principal's honor roll.

Students of the Month from Summit Lakes Middle School are Olivia Chapman and Logan Dale. Olivia is the daughter of Belinda and James Chapman. At SLMS, Olivia is involved in basketball, was a math contest winner and received state and national recognition in the Duke Talent Identification Program. Away from school, Olivia enjoys soccer and the Kansas City Youth Symphony. Logan is the son of Ruth and Terry Dale. At SLMS, Logan is involved in football and track. Away from school, Logan enjoys the Youth Leadership Team at his church and hunting with both archery and gun. He has been listed on the principal's honor roll.