

PRESENTED BY LEE'S SUMMIT CARES

PARENTING TEENS WITH LOVE AND LOGIC

Do some of the things your pre-teen/teen says or does throw you for a loop? During these times do you look at your teen and wonder, who are you? Where's my kid? You are not alone! The teen years are a challenge for everyone, including the teen. Join me and learn effective ways for handling:

- Friends and Peer Pressure
- Attitude and Mood Swings
- House Rules
- Homework and Grades
- Arguing and Back Talk
- Technology use and more...

Let me help you learn how to stay connected with your teen as you guide him/her to become a responsible adult. There will be no class on March 12, spring break. A representative from the Lee's Summit Police Department will be presenting information on internet safety on 3/19. Teens are encouraged to attend that class.

Monday's, February 27
through April 2
6:30 to 8:30 pm

Bernard Campbell Middle School
1201 NE Colbern Rd.

Cost $42 (per participant)
NO COST for previous participants

Cost is $32 if you have the black and white manual.

BCMS 12-Winter Teen
